

ARNÉE FLORES

Author

LONG BIO

Arnée Flores is the author of the critically acclaimed middle grade fantasy THE FIREBIRD SONG and its forthcoming sequel THE SPIRIT QUEEN. She has partnered with ALA, Booklist, SLJ, and Disney as a panelist celebrating diversity and highlighting the importance of creating magical, uplifting stories during times of adversity.

A Vietnamese American, tranracial adoptee, Flores was raised in rural Washington towns by an RN father and a disabled mother. A perpetual student, she has studied everything from piano performance to philosophy.

She currently lives in the Seattle area with her husband, young daughter, and a small white dog called the Professor. When she's not writing, Flores can be found strumming the ukulele, learning languages on Duolingo, or in her kitchen, baking some kind of pie.

She is represented by Sara Crowe at Pippin Properties.
